

2015 Iowa Girls High School Basketball Milestones & Top Performances Feb. 5 – Feb. 12

Van Buren's Kaitlyn Johnson scored her 1,000th career point in the Warriors' first round regional victory over Holy Trinity Catholic Feb. 12. Earlier in the week, Johnson broke her own single-season record for three-pointers.

Pleasantville's Kennedy Core became the school's career leader in assists when she recorded seven in a loss to Mount Ayr Feb. 6. Core is also the school's career leader in steals.

Central Decatur's Hallie Linhart became the school's career scoring leader in an 82-48 victory over Southwest Valley Feb. 6. Linhart poured in 26 points and has 1,313 career points heading into regional play.

Springville's Rylee Menster broke the school's single season record for steals. Her 111 steals this season breaks the old mark of 90, set by Carly Martin in the 2007-08 season.

Interstate-35's Gracey Griglione became the school's single season leader in rebounds. Her 242 boards this season breaks the old mark held by former Roadrunner standout Olivia Sulentic.

Grinnell's Sienna Durr pulled down 12 rebounds in the Tigers' 49-33 victory over Pella Christian Feb. 10. Durr now has 198 rebounds this season, a new school record.

Waukee's Reilly Jacobson became Waukee's single season leader in points. She now heads 355 points going into this weekend's games. On Feb. 6, she became the school's single season record holder in rebounds in a loss vs. Ankeny Centennial.

West Des Moines Valley's Grace Vander Weide became the Tigers' single season leader in assists when she had nine in Valley's 70-36 victory over Des Moines East Feb. 10.

Manson-NW Webster's Faith Troshynski scored her 1,000th career point in the Cougars' loss to Pocahontas Area Feb. 10.

Lindsey Koch of Hudson scored her 1,000th career point in the Pirates' 49-34 loss to Union. Koch had 10 points in the contest.

Junior Marina Keck of Kingsley-Pierson joined the 1,000 point club Feb. 10, scoring 19 points in a 69-54 victory over Westwood.

Cedar Rapids Kennedy's Steph Botkin scored her 1,000th career point Feb. 10 in the Cougars' 65-26 victory over Cedar Rapids Jefferson. Botkin scored 24 in the game.

Perry's Maggie Lowe recorded her 500th career assist in the Bluejays's 64-41 victory over Bondurant-Farrar Feb. 10. Teammate Claire Marburger also scored her 1,800th career point in the contest.

Sergeant Bluff-Luton's Amber Schubert became the school's single season and career scoring leader in a 62-30 victory over Council Bluff Thomas Jefferson on Feb. 9. Schubert had 20 points in the win.

Edgewood-Colesburg's Kari Fitzpatrick scored her 1,500th career point in a 47-42 loss to Central Elkader Feb. 6.

Red Oak's Kate Walker recorded a triple-double; 20 points, 13 rebounds & 13 assists, in a 70-46 victory over Creston Feb. 6.
