

2015 Basketball Milestones & Performances of the Week
Jan. 29 – Feb. 4

North Linn senior Nicole Miller became the 17th girl to score 2,000 career points in the Lynx' 81-17 victory over Central City. Miller had 24 points in the contest.

Fremont-Mills' Macy Williams scored her 1,500th career point in a 54-34 victory over Stanton Jan. 30. Macy scored 11 points in the contest.

AHSTW's Danikah Grobe scored her 1,000th career point against Riverside Feb. 5.

Mason City junior Makenzie Meyer recorded her 1,000th career point Feb. 3, scoring 22 points in a losing effort vs. top-ranked Waukee.

West Lyon's Tarah Meyer grabbed her 700th career rebound Feb. 3 vs. Sheldon. Meyer had 11 boards in the contest.

Earlham's Kristen Weber joined the 1,000 career point club Jan. 31.

Springville senior Sarah Matus made her 200th career three-pointer Jan. 30 vs. Alburnett. Matus is the school's career leader in three-point goals with 203.

Grinnell freshman Sienna Durr broke the school record for blocks in a single season when she swatted three shots in the Tigers' win over Oskaloosa. Sienna now has 79 blocks on the season.

Knoxville's Meredith Cunningham scored 1,000th career point in the Panthers' 63-31 victory over Centerville Jan. 30. Meredith scored 27 points in the contest and becomes the third Knoxville player to reach 1,000 career points.

Two players reached 1,000 points in the same contest. Ashton Connelly of Emmetsburg and Western Christian's Jamie Gesink both hit the 1,000 point mark in the Wolfpack's 54-35 victory over Emmetsburg Jan. 30. Gesink had 19 points in the contest while Connelly scored 10.

Northwood-Kensett's Hattie Davidson reached 1,000 career points in a 67-48 victory over Nashua-Plainfield Jan. 30. Davidson had 19 points in the victory.
